

QUAINT GOWN AND BONNET.

OPEN PINEHURST. WANTS

Rapid Progress Is Being Made in Development.

Surveyors Are Laying Out Estates and Driveways.

GOES ON SALE SOON.

Sidewalks to Be Laid in Front of Every Estate.

Perfect Lighting System to Be Installed There.

Within a few days, Pinehurst, the place where men may build beautiful homes and make those homes live, will be open and ready for selection of estates. Surveyors have been busy this week laying out the estates as each tract will be culled, a contractor, with a small army of men, mules and graders will begin cutting streets and laying out driveways Monday, weather permitting. The contract for the erection of a complete street lighting system has been made and within two weeks time cement columns will mark the main entrance and driveway to the most unique, yet the most desirable residence place in Kansas.

Development in Pinehurst will progress rapidly from now on if fair weather continues. Many happy surprises will be given Topekan as roadways are cut to grade, as four thousand dollars worth of cement sidewalks are constructed, giving a walk in front of each estate, as parkings are laid out and beautiful, as eleven thousand dollars worth of electric lights are installed, giving a place of beauty by day and brilliancy by night.

"Yes, Pinehurst is going to be ready for home builders right away," said one of the officers of the Pinehurst Investment company in the New England building. "We are going to make Pinehurst a beautiful, restful place in which to live, and each estate will range from one-half to one acre. They will be large enough to actually produce a living for a family."

"Families are being supported year after year on such small plots of ground right around Topeka. No place in the city or around about, or anywhere in Kansas is there a community of homes to be made as formal, beautiful as Pinehurst will be."

For the past month men have been clearing away undesirable shrubbery and trees from the Pinehurst tract. Only the splendid shady elms remain, their golden leaves falling, nestle deep in a velvet of blue grass which carpets the banks of Pinehurst creek down to the water's edge.

Pinehurst is certainly going to be an unique place. Announcement will be made later of its opening.

SNAP SHOTS AT HOME NEWS.

Tomorrow is the world's temperance day in connection with the churches.

Many of the visiting teachers have remained in Topeka today to visit friends.

The park committee of the Commercial club held a meeting this noon to further discuss the boulevard plan.

A gang of workmen will start in the morning grading in Pinehurst the first of the week.

Ray Hall's orchestra has contracted with the National hotel for music every Sunday at a rate beginning at 5.00 p. m.

The alumni, faculty, and students of the State Normal school held their annual reunion and banquet at the First Presbyterian church Friday night, with 300 present.

M. Koenigsberg of New York city, a big man with the International News Service, has been asked to speak before the Topeka Ad club, but as yet he has not been heard from.

Definite arrangement will be made the first of the week for perfecting the organization of the Topeka Real Estate Dealers' association.

Proctor M. E. Pearson of the State Teachers' association has been commented upon by the teachers as being a most capable and efficient officer.

It is impossible for street cars to make their proposed stops on many of the Topeka streets. The leaves on the tracks defy everything—even the sand and the rollers. Street railway officials are praying that no accident will occur.

This morning when the wind shifted to the north and indications pointed to a cold wave, every coal dealer in the city was rushed with orders for coal. Topeka people are prepared to use for almost any announcement from the gas office.

Officers of the Topeka fire department arrived at 10 o'clock this morning when they appeared and not a fire alarm had been turned in during the night. A fire on a windy night would have been a disaster.

The new Westminster church is nearing its completion. The lecture room will be ready for use on next Sunday and the Christian Endeavor and evening services will be held there. It is hoped to have the building all finished about December 1.

It is expected that the meeting for men at the Auditorium, Sunday afternoon, December 10, will be the greatest religious meeting for men ever held in Topeka, even surpassing the Bryan meeting four years ago. The speaker will be Raymond Robins of Chicago. Mr. Robins is a most interesting personality. He made a fortune in the Klondike. He is devoting a year to the Men and Religion movement without pay. Mr. Robins politically is rated as a Socialist. He will be the social service expert of the Topeka team.

A good story is being told on Capt. J. G. W. who was riding on a West Sixth avenue car when a schism came who was sitting in the same seat said: "Pardon me, but I am going to get off here myself. What number were you wanting to find?" "That will be sufficient, sir," came the answer.

The week of prayer for young men will be observed next week by the Y. M. C. A., Gideons, Barabans, and Brotherhood organizations. At the Central association building meetings will be held daily from 2:30 to 4 o'clock. Sunday afternoon Frank G. Brown will have charge of a 2:30 o'clock meeting in Gemmill hall. Elton S. Clark will look after the music. The members of the committee of Men and Religion movement are asked to attend.

Two important parties for next week will be a tea "Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 6 at which Mrs. William T. Crosby, Mrs. George W. Parham, Mrs. Robert Garson and Mrs. Charles Kleinham will be hostesses. The affair will be given at Mrs. Crosby's home, 1109 Topeka avenue. The Crosby house is a new one and, they say, quite elegant and artistic, and as this is the first large party held there the circumstance adds a little of interest, perhaps, to the event, which in itself is important. The following day, Mrs. D. E. Estery and Mrs. W. F. Benson will have a tea from 2 to 6 o'clock at Mrs. Benson's home, 381 Western avenue.

Mrs. H. A. Auerbach will have guests at two affairs next week: a luncheon Tuesday and a bridge party Thursday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. A. H. Denbach, who is visiting her. There will also be some parties for Miss Ella Davis, whose marriage to Mr. Frank Griggs will take place Wednesday, November 22.

The Assembly club will have its next dance Tuesday evening, November 28, at the Elks' hall.

Such a pretty way of combining plain and plain material is shown in the sketch model. This frock was developed in moss green crepe with insets of blue and green plaid silk. The silk appeared on the bodice as a tucker, cuffs and insets at the sides of the blouse. There was a plastron of ecru lace. On the left side of the skirt a long inverted rever buttoned over an inset of silk in the side gore. This was accomplished with serge buttons and silk loops. Trimmed top of green tulle, trimmed with shaded green and blue feathers.

Mrs. C. M. Hill gave a card party Friday afternoon for her daughter, Harriet. The guests were: Miss Hester Barber, Miss Lillian Martin, Miss Lillian Guthrie, Miss Helen Whitte, Miss Helen Foxworth, Miss M. G. Gault, Miss Antoinette West, Miss Georgia Marsh, Miss Dorothy Sprent, Miss Dorothy Nichols, Miss Mary Burnett, Miss Ruth Wood, Miss Alice Lyman, Miss Ethel Chase, Miss Edith Connell, Miss Eleanor Crowder, Miss Marjorie Crittenden, Miss Lucile Elmore, Miss Margaret Hill, Miss Rose, Miss Gladys Nell and Miss Genevieve McMillan.

The Chuteau club will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Logan, and Mrs. Warren M. Crosby will talk on "X-ray Pictures to See in Europe."

Mrs. J. W. Going of San Diego, Cal., Mrs. W. F. Logan of Seattle, and Mrs. W. D. Witwer of Fort Scott, were guests of honor at a dinner party Thursday evening given by Mrs. J. E. Sheard. Covers were laid for Mrs. Going, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Witwer, Mrs. Albert Patton, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. Isabel McArthur, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. J. A. Howe, Mrs. Mildred Hazelrigg and Miss Marie Witwer.

The Duplicate Whist club will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Geo. M. Crawford, 1112 Tyler street.

The Elwell Bridge club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Briggs at her home, 412 Topeka avenue.

Miss Bernice Fuller, who is at the head of the musical department of the Y. W. C. A., arranged a musical program Thursday and Friday afternoon this week for the visiting teachers. Those who sang were: Miss Mabel Hildebrand, Miss Mary Yeger of Atchison, Miss Lynn Wyatt, Miss Bernice Fuller and Miss Ida Kendall of Washington college. Violin music was furnished by Miss Jessie Walker and Miss Gladys Gave, and the pianists were: Miss Ethel Harrison, Miss Mary Dallas Gage, and Miss Mary Helen Shiner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Quinton entertained their bridge club Friday night. The members this year are Mr. and Mrs. Quinton, Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carter, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hamann, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Merrill and Dr. and Mrs. W. N. W.

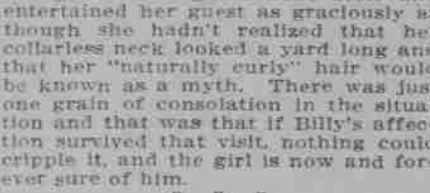

Billy lives in Kansas City and his best girl lives in Topeka. Under those circumstances, Best Girl had every reason to think that she was perfectly safe

In lounging about in the oldest, most comfortable garments in the house while she tossed the washing and housecleaning job Monday morning. In her sense of security from intrusion she had left the curlers in her hair, donned a skirt with a director's rip in the side seam, a tea jacket that had once been red, but washed out to a garish pink, and given a chautauqua ironing, and a pair of fur-trimmed bedroom slippers. Thus attired the young woman had just finished a letter to Billy when the door bell rang. Thinking that the caller was a book agent and that one look at her would scare him away without further parley, she went to the door, opened it just a wee bit and peeked out. "That agent is wearing a coat uncommonly like Billy's," she thought, but opened the door a little wider to take a better look. But the visitor had caught sight of her, and it was too late for her to retreat. Billy was not expected and he was not wanted just then. There was some truth in so many visitors that one gets into the habit of pretending to be pleased when they arrive. Billy, however, fastening his eyes on the girl in a position that commanded a view of the dining table on which were strewn some unnameable articles that had arrived that morning from the dry goods store, and looking at the girl in the poor girl's skirt, she found it impracticable to get into the next room and remove the offending display. But the girl was a game little stoic and entertained her guest as graciously as though she hadn't realized that her collarless neck looked a yard long and that her naturally curly hair would be known as a myth. There was just one grain of consolation in the situation and that was that if Billy's affection survived that visit, nothing could cripple it, and the girl is now and forever sure of him.

The Ceramic Art club will meet Friday afternoon, November 17, with Mrs. T. S. Stevens and Mrs. W. C. McDonough, at Mrs. Stevens' home, 1262 Fillmore street.

The pupils of Miss Ida Tinker, pianist, were heard in recital this afternoon at Miss Tinker's home on a billiard street. The program was given by Mrs. Harold Cartledge, Mrs. Fred Wallace, Mrs. W. H. Innes, Mrs. W. P. Harkness, Mrs. Harriet Peterson, Miss Mattie Payne, Miss Anita Wolskeich, Miss Elsie Jacobs, Miss Bertha Jacobs, Miss Jessie McFarland, Miss Louise Groat, Miss Amy Markley, Miss Isabel Dechuden, Miss Margaret Harkness, Miss Bertha Lauterbach, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Marguerite Incho, Miss Pearl Markley, Miss Florence Dechuden, Miss Louise Swartz, Miss Margaret Peterson, Miss Margaret McNerny, Miss Irene Lauterbach, Miss Marian Sturm, Miss Ada Harkness, Miss Laura Burkett, Master Richard Cartledge and N. M. Rice, Jr.

Children's hats still adhere to the quaint mandarin, bowl and poke shapes so quaintly charming above baby faces. To be quite correct, however, they must be severe in trimming and line, which is also true this year of many designs for older folks. The drawing reproduced above shows a hat for a girl of six, of white felt, the same. The skirt, fastening on the left and keeping the lines of the coat, shows an inset of velvet at the feet. Black velvet buttons are used on coat and skirt.

A luncheon was given Friday morning by the resident officers of the Equal Suffrage association, Mrs. W. A. Johnston, Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. W. R. Stubbs, Miss Elsie Graham and Miss Gertrude Reed, for the women who are county superintendents and here to attend the teachers' association convention. The following resolution was adopted by the company: "That we petition every justice loving Kansas voter to use all honorable means to give Kansas women, mothers of Kansas citizens and future Kansas citizens, a voice in the laws that govern them, and in those touching their special interests—the children, the school, and the home." Each guest was asked to give in one sentence her reason for being a suffragist. Covers were laid for: Mrs. D. Beardsley of Russell county, Miss Anna E. Arnold of City, Miss Etta Joe McCoy of Franklin, Miss Minnie Stewart of Bourbon, Mrs. W. W. Barber of Phillips, Miss Olivia H. Miller of Geary. They are going to Denver, where they will visit their friends and in those touching their special interests—the children, the school, and the home.
